MUSICAL HALL, BROOKLYN

Corner of Fulton and Orange Sts., late Brooklyn Museum.

CHARLEY WHITE'S
COMPLIMENTARY
BENEFIT!

And LAST NIGHT of the Troupe in Broooklyn,

FRIDAY EVENING, JAN. 8TH 1857

Look what uovelty for this occasion,

SILE WEED

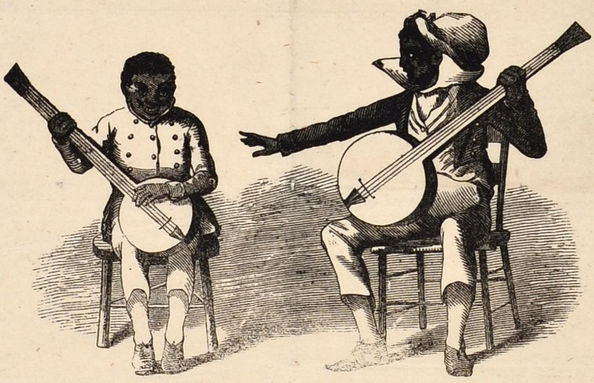
The inimitable Ethiopian and Brooklyn Favorite, having kindly volunteered his valuable aid. Also

MR. F. WELLS

The beautiful Delineator and Burlesque Danseuse. Together with

Mast. TUCKER

The much admired and celebrated Jig Dancer.



Ia addition to which the followiug well-knowu Members of

CHARLEY WHITE'S
OPERA TROUPE

J. H. BUDWORTH, J. V. CAMPBELL, W. BLAIR, T. McNALLY,
J. WILLIAMS, GEO. WILKES, C. COVELLI, J. W. PIERCE,
D. WOODS, MAST. CHAS. RENTZ, C. WHITE,

MAKING FOURTEEN PERFORMERS IN ALL!

Which cannot fail to amuse and delight all those who may favour us with their presence.

TICKETS - - - - 25 CENT

For further particulars see small bills and Programmes.

BACON & DUTTON, PRINTERS AND ENGRAVERS, 12 & 14 SPRUCE STREET, NEW YORK.